Where Are the Feminine Black Women?

When night was silver and day was golden; But out on the shore the waves are moaning With ancient and never fulfilled desire, And the spirits of all the empty spaces, Of all the dark and haunted places, With the rain and the wind on their death-white faces, Come to the lure of our leaping fire. In other books, he traces this failure to the problems and pathologies of Arab nationalism in the midth century.
