An essay on the origin and prospects of man

In both poets we find plumes sprinkled with gold, and a warlike, or regal ornament confining the flowing ring-lets of the hair. As already mentioned, the adjective follows the same rules as the noun, as for the feminine and plural forms; so it agrees with the word qualified by it, in gender and number, as: o homem e alto the man is tall a torre e alta the spire is high as torres sao alias the spires are high.
