Description In this book an intimate portrayal of God the Father and His Divine Heart is provided through brief narratives. Instead of entering the market-place, where excellence can shine, they preferred, as it were, to throw open their private houses in 'conspicuous consumption', to display their wealth and to show what, by its very nature, is not fit to be seen by all. In the Gnostica issue of August 21,
