It's amazing that Joseph Conrad didn't learn to speak English fluently until his twenties but could describe the setting and events so. With this radical new modeling of time as space and vice versa, it makes sense that composers would craft works that could account musically for the relativity of the universe. Or maybe it happened to be that, despite the standard story, standard romance, and standard characters, our two leading ladies were also a bit different than the standard depiction of the standard romance novel heroine.
